

DOMAINE ROCHE

JEB DUNNUCK 93-95

2019 Domaine Roche Cairanne La Bousquette

The 2019 Cairanne La Bousquette also comes from older vines and is a mix of mostly Grenache with a splash of Carignan. This incredibly complex Cairanne is the most concentrated and backward in the lineup, revealing a deep purple hue as well as gorgeous nose of blackberries, peppery garrigue, new leather, and licorice. Medium to full-bodied, with a great mid-palate as well as ripe yet present tannins, it's going to benefit from a few years in the cellar and have a solid 10-15 years of overall longevity.

2019 Domaine Roche Cairanne Marcel Roche

Coming from 100% old vine Grenache, the 2019 Cairanne Marcel Roche is another brilliant wine from this estate. Loads of black raspberries, candied orange, wildflowers, camphor, and peppery garrigue define the nose, and it's medium to full-bodied, with a rich yet also fresh, lively mouthfeel, ripe tannins, and a great finish. It's a hedonistic beauty that does everything right.

JEB DUNNUCK 91-93

2019 Domaine Roche Cairanne

The 2019 Cairanne is brilliant stuff, and I'd certainly be happy to drink a bottle. Lots of black raspberry and jammy blueberries as well as candied orange, flowers, and peppery herbs give way to a medium to full-bodied, rounded, sexy Cairanne with beautiful purity as well as length. It's going to drink nicely right out of the gate yet keep for 7-8 years.

2019 Domaine Roche Cotes Du Rhone

Beautiful black raspberry, peppery herbs, earth, and some chocolate notes emerge from the 2019 Côtes du Rhône. A ripe, pure, beautifully balanced Cotes du Rhone, it has no hard edges and the class to drink nicely for 4-6 years. It's well worth seeking out and would be one heck of a house red.
